Helene Silverman -- Design and Layout
Libby Sinclair -- Program Notes
Earl Kotas -- Jackey

IF A PRODUCER FAILS TO SUBMIT PROGRAM NOTES ON OR BEFORE DECEMBER 8, THAT PRODUCER'S AIR TIME FOR JANUARY WILL BE OFFERED TO OTHER PRODUCERS.

In order to publish the Program Guide on time for each coming month, the volunteers and staff who work on the Guide must have all program notes turned in by the 8th day of the preceding month. Notes for January will thus be due on December 8.

If a program is on more than once a month, there must be an indication on the card of the airing dates. Only one card will be required if a program is on daily. Shows with specific, pre-planned content should be fully described, one card per show.

If a producer cannot be sure of specific program content by the time of the deadline, a card should be submitted giving the program title and time, and a 1-3 sentence description of the show for the benefit of the first-time KRAB listener.

The above guidelines apply to EVERY program and EVERY producer.

KRAB Benefit Unpopular Concert No.2

The Blackouts
Student Nurse
The Refuzors
U-Men

These four great groups will perform an all-KRAB benefit concert at Danceland U.S.A. Saturday, December 5, at 8:00 p.m. Our one and only Steve Rabow will host the proceedings, which are open to ALL AGES. Tickets will be available at the door for $4.00 each. This is a lively way to show your support for KRAB, and we look forward to meeting many of our listeners. So be there! Danceland U.S.A. is located at 1510 1st Avenue in Seattle.

A Word to Our Sponsors

Sponsors? At KRAB?

Yes, indeed. Because "listener-supported" radio really means listener-supported radio. There are no tobacco companies or soap manufacturers paying the bills at KRAB. Our only sponsors are you, the audience.

As you probably know, we have just concluded our most recent fund-raising marathon. The results were good...but quite honestly, not good enough. Because of technical problems related to the mid-November storms, we were off the air during most of our first marathon weekend. And it's hard to get people to pledge their support and pay their membership dues when we're not able to broadcast.

What we need now is an extra measure of support...from those of you who just didn't find the time to phone in a pledge, from you who have never been a KRAB member but who enjoy one or more of our programs, and from you who just want to help a little bit more.

We've experienced some unexpected costs due to the wind and rain damage, and your contribution, whether for membership or just our of your generosity, will be deeply appreciated. All you need to do is mail your check to KRAB, 2212 S. Jackson, Seattle, WA 98144. Twenty-five dollars (or fifteen dollars if you're on fixed or limited income) will establish or renew your membership.

Although you may not believe it, we try to keep our pleas for financial support to a minimum. Certainly our fund requests occupy only a small fraction of the time taken for commercials on stations which broadcast for profit. When we do ask for your help, we really need it.

One of our many volunteers, Paul Stanbery, recently categorized the great diversity of programming heard of KRAB each month. He visualized the eight programming legs of KRAB:

1. Third World language and music.
2. Black culture (jazz, community news, gospel, street music).
3. Women's culture and commentary.
4. "Nostalgia" for all ages and tastes (popular and show music)
5. Diverse music studies (early to new; rock to classic).
6. Documentary studies and international news.
7. Spoken word (lectures, readings, drama).
8. Folk, blues and country music.

You may not agree with Paul's categorization, but I think anyone will admit that KRAB offers something for everyone.

After all that, the final word of this column should be one of thanks. Thanks to all of you who have done so much in supporting KRAB over the years, making our unique diversity possible. Sometimes we at KRAB are so concerned about raising the money to pay our current bills that we forget to voice our appreciation for what our listeners have already contributed. Thank you one and all.

Monti Hind
KRAB-FM Executive Director

MODERN RECORDING SESSION

MONDAY 28

6:00 EARLY MUSIC

Special: The KRAB EARLY MUSIC Season-Go-Round (Beginning) Paul Stanbery cycles through the seasons -- and through the history of western concert music not once, but five times! Each lap passes through works devoted to Winter, Spring Summer, and Fall by baroque composer Vivaldi (conducted by local-boy-makes-good Rolf Smedvig), classical master Haydn (in an English-language version), romantic-nationalist Glazounov (a rare composer-conducted recording), modernist Milhaud (also conducting) and neo-modernist W. Carlos (directly synthesized on magnetic tape). Salutes to the months and the zodiac by other composers line the ecliptic roadside before the procession concludes tomorrow.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

WOMEN AND THE WORLD

This is a regular series of stimulating and informative programs produced by United Nations Radio and presented by the KRAB International News Cooperative. The focus is upon women's stories and women's issues from around the world. This program is broadcast every Tuesday at 3:00 p.m.

ROLL ON COLUMBIA

This is another regular KRAB series of great merit. This month's broadcast includes Alan and Elizabeth Lomax's interview of Woody Guthrie in 1940 for the Library of Congress. There will also be music by Woody, Cisco Houston, and more. Your KRAB host is Will Werley. Roll on Columbia will be heard Monday, December 28, at 8:00 p.m.

DECLARATIONS OF INDEPENDENCE: DISABLED AMERICANS IN THE 80'S

Two half-hour programs from the first radio series to examine the struggle of America's disabled population for dignity and equality. The first of these will be "Independent Living: The Birth of a Movement," documenting the history and struggle of activists working to gain justice for 35 million disabled Americans. The second broadcast will be "Disability Comes Home: How Four Families Cope," in which four individuals discuss their family's experience with their own or a loved one's disability. To be broadcast on consecutive Tuesday evenings, December 15 and 22, at 7:00 p.m.

THE JACK STRAW MEMORIAL FOUNDATION

The Jack Straw Memorial Foundation is a private, non-profit organization dedicated solely to the guidance and support of KRAB-FM. The volunteer Board of Trustees guide the direction of the station and set general policy. In its seventeenth year of broadcasting, KRAB continues to dedicate its airwaves to the freedom of expression through a variety of cultures, music and spoken arts, and political issues. While the station does not espouse any particular cultural, political or social philosophy, it encourages programming that is diverse and often controversial. KRAB is a member of the National Federation of Community Broadcasters.
